As consideration for, and in order to induce the Company to extend credit, the applicant agrees that:

- 1 It will pay no later than the 10th of the following month after receiving a statement or a service charge of 1.5% per month (annual rate of 18%), or the maximum finance charge allowed by law, which will be applied to any outstanding balance due over sixty (60) days. The Company reserves the right to modify this agreement concerning the date payments are due, the amount of service charge imposed, and the amount of discount allowed, after notifying you by regular mail.
- 2 In the event that an attorney, not in the employ of the Company, and or a collection agency is retained by the Company, to collect any part of the balance due, the Company may charge applicant reasonable attorney and/or collection agency fees.
- 3 FOR CONNECTICUT CUSTOMERS ONLY: It hereby agrees that the right to a notice and hearing regarding any prejudgment remedy (Connecticut General Statutes 52-278A et. seq., or any applicable statute) is hereby waived relinquished absolutely and unconditionally.
- 4 It will be responsible for payment of any charges made by any apparent or actual agent or employee of the applicant, whether by oral instruction or in writing, unless the Company receives written notification seven (7) days prior to such charges. Any charges not disputed in writing by the applicant and received by the Company within thirty (30) days of billing shall be deemed to be true charges of the applicant and uncontestable thereafter, and are to be paid by the applicant.
- 5 Applicant agrees that the credit limit by the Company is for administration purposes only, and it in no way limits applicant's liability for its indebtedness to the Company for the particular sum.
